Lab. Iron

Lab. Iron Corten

Lab. Iron Grey

A close-up view of a textured surface with a muted, earthy green color palette, ranging from light sage to dark, almost blackish-green tones. The texture is uneven and organic, with visible grain and subtle variations in tone that suggest a weathered metal or natural stone finish.
